Rooted in Peace

Created by Sundance alumni filmmaker Greg Reitman

Friday, October 27th • 7:00 pm

Great News! UBTS is hosting a special one-time screening of the film Rooted in Peace and we would love for you to come join us!

In Rooted in Peace, director and award-winning filmmaker Greg Reitman invites viewers on a film journey as he learns to take notice of the world we live in and proactively seeks ways to find personal peace for himself.

The film relies not only on memoir, but also interviews with such luminaries and activists as Deepak Chopra, music legends Donovan, Mike Love, and Pete Seeger, film director David Lynch, Noble Peace Laureate Mairead Maguire, media mogul Ted Turner, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, green architect William McDonough, neuroscientist Dan Siegel and many others.

Reitman learns from all of them, and heeds Maharishi Mahesh Yogi's words, that if the forest is to be green, every tree must be green; if there's going to be Peace on earth, then everybody needs to experience that quality of Peace within themselves.

Reitman's journey is an example of transformation — how one person can learn to make the necessary changes to enjoy a better life — and in so doing inspire others to want to improve their own lives, and society as a whole.

We'd love to see you at the screening, and we'd really appreciate you helping us spread the word. Please tell your friends to join us for this special one-time screening of Rooted in Peace.
